And what about change in these contexts:

- Changing something about yourself?
- Helping another person change?
- Changing a team or organization?

And of course, what influence does type have on how you deal with change in your work and in your personal life?

Saturday, February 27
9:30 AM - 4:00 PM: Workshop (9:00 AM Registration)

Making a Difference at Work and in your Relationships: Putting Your Personality to Use

It's a fundamental human need to feel like we're making a difference. Our personality type – particularly the four core functions of ST, SF, NF, and NT – influences how we go about it.

In this workshop you'll hear heart-warming stories, and develop your own weekly plan based on the key ways your core functions can make a difference in:

- Your work
- Your relationships
- Your work with teams and leaders

Greg Huszczo's areas of expertise include organizational change, leadership, teams, union-management relations and personalities. Among his clients: General Motors, British Petroleum, Australian Postal System, and United Auto Workers. A frequent presenter at APT international conferences, he is the author of Tools for Team Excellence, Tools for Team Leadership, and Making a Difference by Being Yourself. Dr. Huszczo lives in Ypsilanti Michigan; he is on the faculty of Eastern Michigan University.
